

Introduction to International Trade & Global Business

The Chamber Coalition in New York has successfully promoted International Trade & Global Business for almost a decade. During this time we have established ourselves as a modern service provider and a reliable partner to international businesses. The Coalition advises companies in various aspects of bilateral business development in the United States and throughout the Caribbean, Africa and Latin America.

To better prepare our members and associates, the Chamber has created an Introduction to International Trade & Global Business as follows:

Wednesday, Jan 9, 2019 from 6pm-8pm

Session 1: The World Is Your Oyster, Find Your Pearl

The world is getting smaller and this is an exciting and lucrative time to get into international trade and global business. This first session touches on the various aspects of being successful on the global market. We will also look at emerging markets, export and import policies and practices including marine insurance, tariff legislation and duties.

IQ I: Site selection services for companies in the USA

Wednesday, Jan 16, 2019 from 6pm-8pm

Session 2: Creating an Effective Export Plan

If you are planning to start a business, you need a business plan. If you are looking to get into exporting, you need an export plan. Creating an export plan will help you to identify the strengths and weaknesses to ensure the success of your project on the international market. Before diving in, learn all the aspects that go into an export plan and how to put them together for success in foreign markets.

IQ II: Market Studies

Wednesday, Jan 23, 2019 from 6pm-8pm

Session 3: Marketing to a Global Market

Welcome to the world of international trade and global business. This session covers the concepts of marketing on an international stage and addresses the global issues that challenge marketers. Topics include techniques for entering and exploiting international markets, the elements of an international marketing mix, and the cultural influences on marketing management and strategies as well as global business etiquette to help you create strong international partnerships and agreements.

IQ III: Office Representation

Wednesday, Jan 30, 2019 from 6pm-8pm

Session 4: Negotiating, Finance, Getting Paid and International Legal Issues

This session helps you to develop an understanding of the legal environment of global business and also provides an introduction to international banking, financial markets, global government, and private financial institutions. The bottom line is always getting paid. No export deal can be considered a success until payment reaches your account. Of course, there are risks on both sides of the transaction. You will learn about the various methods of payment used in international transactions to reduce risk as well as negotiating basics.

IQ IV: Tradeshow Support and Assistance

Wednesday, Feb 6, 2019 from 6pm-8pm

Session 5: Globalizing Your Website & Doing Business in South Africa

Companies that want to take advantage of the unique opportunities the internet offers need to adapt to the international marketplace. Learn how to make your website more business ready to foreign buyers. This session will provide discuss the tools and resources for updating your website and growing your international sales.

IQ V: Strategic Relationships

Open to Chamber members ONLY.
